THIS APPLICATION WILL BE KEPT ON FILE FOR TWO YEARS FROM DATE OF SUBMITTAL.

Members are appointed by the Mayor with the consent of the City Council at the first meeting in December of each year. You must be a resident of the City of Austin to serve on any of the following boards.

The Board of Appeal and Equalization meets once in the spring to determine whether taxable property in the City of Austin has been properly valued and classified by the assessor, and also to determine whether corrections need to be made. The board is comprised of four members, one from each ward and one at-large representative. Members are asked to take a half-day training session.

The Cable TV Committee oversees franchise agreements for cable TV as well as the government access channel. A term on the board is three years. The board does not meet on a regular basis.

The Charter Commission consists of seven to fifteen members. The commission is charged with reviewing and revising the City Charter, which acts as the city's constitution. A term on the Charter Commission is four years. The commission meets once each year and for special meetings as called.

The Planning Commission consists of nine members whose purpose is to conduct hearings and advise the city council on land-use matters, including zoning and development plans. A term on the Planning Commission is four years. Meets second or third Tuesday of every month at 5:30 pm and for special meetings as called.

The Fire Civil Service Commission consists of three members. The commission has supervision over the employment, promotion, discharge and suspension of all officers and employees of the Fire Department. A term on the commission is three years. The board meets for special meetings as called.

The Housing and Redevelopment Authority Commission consists of seven members – three city council members, a Port Authority representative, one public housing or Section 8 resident, and two non-elected citizens. The purpose of the board is to provide decent, safe and sanitary housing to low income individuals and to facilitate economic development and redevelopment efforts. A term on the commission is five years. Meets the third Thursday of every month at 4:30 pm.

The Human Rights Commission consists of nine members whose purpose is to act informally to eliminate unfair discriminatory practices that are contrary to the public policies of the State of Minnesota. A term on the Human Rights Commission is three years. Meets fourth Monday of each month at 6:15 pm and for special meetings as called.

The Library Board consists of nine members whose purpose is to oversee the functions of the public library. One seat is traditionally held by a council member. A term on the board is three years. All members must be qualified voters of the city. Meets second Monday of each month at 4:15 pm and for special meetings and committee meetings as called.

The Park and Recreation Board consists of seven members – one School Board District 492 representative and five citizens. One seat is traditionally held by a council member. The board's purpose is to oversee the public parks and recreation activities of the City of Austin. A term on the board is four years. Meets first Wednesday of each month at 5:15 pm and for special meetings as called.

The Pillars of the City Committee consists of nine members who make annual recommendations to the City Council on individuals to be recognized on honorary plaques placed on the Mill Pond flood protection wall pillars.

The Police Civil Service Commission consists of three members. The commission has supervision over the employment, promotion, discharge and suspension of all officers and employees of the Police Department. A term on the commission is three years. The board meets for special meetings as called.

The Port Authority consists of seven members – five citizens and two council members. The board carries out economic and industrial development and redevelopment within the city. A term on the board is six years. The board meets quarterly on the fourth Wednesday at 4:30 pm and for special meetings as called.

The Sustainability Taskforce consists of up to 15 members whose purpose is to advise the City on sustainability issues and to facilitate GreenStep Cities Best Practices implementation. A term on the board is three years. The full board meets the second Wednesday of every other month at 7:30 am.
